St. Vincent College (Arts and Commerce)

We are a profession of teachers in the service of providing Higher Education to the youth.

Our mandate is to promote learning, development and building of character of our students

Our values, attitudes and actions influence the impact of our work.

These ethical principles constitute a common ground for the development of our ethical awareness. It is our responsibility to act in accordance with these values and principles.

Ethical responsibility of the teaching profession at St. Vincent College (Arts and Commerce) in our work with students and parents

Our responsibility is to build a trusting relationship with those we work for and with. Our loyalty rests with the students, to promote what is in their best interest. Truthful communication of knowledge is the essential responsibility of teachers

All Faculty of the College:

- promote the possibility to play, learning and building for students
- work to be up to date academically
- are caring and are aware of the power we have by virtue of our position
- are academically sound and ethically aware in evaluation work
- promote equality
- meet students, parents and colleagues with respect
- intervene and protect students against violations
- meet criticism with openness and well founded professional arguments in the workplace

As a professional community we have a common responsibility to develop good education and to promote and develop our professionalism.

The profession:

- shows courage and defends our mandate
- use the freedom of speech actively and participates in relevant academic discussions and in policy debates on education
- take responsibility to warn authorities and the public when poor framework causes unacceptable conditions for students
- strive for good cooperation, but not by taking over responsibilities that are part of other professions' expertise
- do not compromise the values of the mandate, our professional knowledge or our ethical values

Teachers and leaders in St. Vincent College (Arts and Commerce) are committed to the professional ethics and will strive to adhere to the professional responsibilities.
