

The Seminar on crime prevention for students was organized to raise awareness among young people about the importance of safety and security in their communities. It aimed to equip students with knowledge and strategies to protect themselves and contribute to the prevention of crime in their surroundings. Some of the points discussed were Understanding Types of Crime, Safety Tips and

Precautions, Role of Students in Crime Prevention, Cyber Safety and Online Security, Building Positive The seminar on crime prevention for students provided valuable insights and practical guidance to empower young people to protect themselves and contribute to safer communities. By understanding the various aspects of crime and adopting proactive measures, students can play a vital role in preventing and addressing issues of safety and security in their everyday lives. This seminar was jointly organized by ASEZ a global networking of students along with AICUF of St.Vincent College, Pune on 31 January.