Notice

Blood Donation Drive

Dear Students,

We are pleased to announce a noble opportunity to make a difference in the lives of others through the act of blood donation. The NSS Unit of St. Vincent College Pune, in collaboration with the blood bank of Sassoon Hospital, Pune, is organizing a Blood Donation Drive.

Date: October 8, 2022

Time: 9:00 AM

Location: St. Vincent College, Pune-37

Every drop of blood donated has the potential to save a life, and your participation in this drive can make a significant impact on those in need. By donating blood, you will be contributing to the well-being of patients in hospitals and healthcare facilities across the city.

The Blood Donation Drive aims to raise awareness about the importance of voluntary blood donation and encourage students to become regular donors. Your generosity can help ensure an adequate supply of blood for medical emergencies and lifesaving treatments.

We invite all students who are eligible and willing to participate in this humanitarian cause. Your participation will not only benefit those in need but also serve as a testament to our commitment to serving the community.

For registration and further details, please contact the NSS Unit faculty advisor.

Let's come together to save lives and make a positive impact on our community!

REPORT

BLOOD DONATION DRIVE

A Blood donation drive was organized by our NSS unit on October 8, 2022, in collaboration with Sassoon Hospital, through which more than 50 units of blood was donated by both students and the staff members of our St. Vincent College, Pune.

It is a way of St. Vincent College, Pune gesture in bringing a ray of hope to contribute to the serious problems of acute shortage of blood. India faces a blood shortage of 3 million units. The problem can be addressed if an additional two percent of Indians donate blood, as opened by the Health experts. We need 12 million units of blood every year but just about nine million units are being donated. Our College has been religiously organizing blood donation camps every year and students and the faculty members come forward voluntarily to donate blood. While addressing to people at the camp our NSS volunteers brought awareness in them about shortage of blood and why we must donate blood every year, to help the persons requiring blood. Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it.

The NSS unit of St. Vincent College, Pune, organized a blood donation camp in collaboration with blood bank of Sassoon Hospital, Pune, on 8th October 2022. The camp began at 9.00 a.m. with a short inaugural function where in Dr. Atul Kapoore and his twelvemember team was given a floral welcome. Dr. Kapoore expressed his gratitude to the NSS unit of the college for its continuous endeavour in this regard. He also stressed on the growing need of blood in the state and commended the young volunteers for their noble act. The Camp was inaugurated by Principal, Dr. Anil Adsule & NSS Programme Officer, Dr. Vishal Bhaware & Dr. John Gilbi by felicitating the first blood donor Mr. Clifford Pandit, S.Y. B.Com. Student donating Blood. 50 donors (26 NSS Volunteers, 7 teaching and non-teaching staff and other 32 stakeholders) volunteers came forward to donate blood. At the end 50 units of Blood was collected. The blood donors were given Tea and Biscuits, Glucose water, and banana after donating the blood in order to reenergize themselves. The blood donors were provided with a blood donation certificate card by Sassoon Hospital. The Sassoon medical team was provided with lunch and the camp concluded at around 2.30 p.m.

This was the 1st camp conducted by the NSS unit for this academic year 2022-23. The blood donation camp was co-ordinated by Dr Vishal Bhaware, N.S.S co-ordinator of the college. He was assisted by AICUF, Vidyarthini Manch and Rotaract Club of the College.
