A short narration of the program
On 10th February 2025, St. Vincent College, Pune proudly celebrated the Foundation Day of Savitribai Phule Pune University, a prestigious institution to which the college is affiliated. The day marks not only the establishment of one of India’s most respected universities but also stands as a reminder of its enduring commitment to excellence in higher education, inclusivity, and intellectual growth. As an affiliate of this historic university, St. Vincent College regards the day as a moment of pride and reflection on its shared mission in the field of education. The celebration commenced in the morning with a solemn and dignified gathering of faculty, staff, and students in the college auditorium. The event began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the Principal, Dr. Anil Adsule, accompanied by senior faculty members, signifying the illumination brought about by education and knowledge. This was followed by a brief documentary screening showcasing the illustrious journey of Savitribai Phule Pune University from its establishment in 1949 as the University of Poona to its present-day status as a globally recognized academic hub. In his address, Dr. Anil Adsule spoke about the deep and long-standing relationship between the college and the university. He highlighted how the university has been instrumental in promoting inclusive education and academic innovation and praised its progressive outlook, which aligns with the core Jesuit values of St. Vincent College. He also paid tribute to Savitribai Phule, after whom the university is named, for her pioneering work in women’s education and social reform.

To further mark the occasion, a themed reading exhibition was arranged by the college library, showcasing books, research papers, and publications affiliated with the university's scholars and alumni. This exhibit not only honored the academic legacy of the university but also inspired students to take pride in being part of its extended scholarly community.

The Foundation Day celebration concluded with a collective reaffirmation of the college's commitment to upholding the standards of academic integrity, social justice, and intellectual pursuit set by Savitribai Phule Pune University. The program served as both a celebration and a rededication to the values of higher education that the college and university mutually uphold.
