A short narration of the program
AICUF Orientation The AICUF orientation program was held on 18th and 19th of July. The main objective of this program was to introduce AICUF (All India Catholic University Federation) and its core members to the F.Y.B.COM and F.Y.B.A. Students. Students were introduced to the history of AICUF and what it stands for, as well as its future plans. The orientation program was held by the AICUF committee of the college. They gave a detailed introduction to AICUF by showing a video and engaging with the students by asking questions based on the video. It successfully made the students interested in joining the AICUF, to not only have fun but help the society, with AICUF’s main motto being “We are born in an unjust society, and we are determined not to leave it as we have found it in”, it successfully made the students delve deep into thinking about empathy, understanding diverse perspectives and build social relationships.
