A short narration of the program

On Thursday, 5th December, the senior college teaching staff of St. Vincent College had the privilege of attending an enriching session on “Ignatian Leadership”, conducted by Fr. Jose Guibert, the Vice President of a Jesuit University in Spain. The session was held from 8:00 AM to 9:45 AM in the college seminar hall.

Fr. Jose Guibert, an esteemed Jesuit scholar and experienced academic leader, has been traveling internationally to deliver insightful talks on leadership inspired by Ignatian values, the guiding principles of Jesuit education.

Key Highlights of the Session:

1. Introduction to Ignatian Leadership:

Fr. Jose began by explaining the essence of Ignatian Leadership, rooted in the teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola. He emphasized how this leadership model focuses on self-awareness, service to others, and transformational action.

2. Core Principles:

The session delved into the four key pillars of Ignatian Leadership:

- o Self-Awareness: Knowing one’s strengths, weaknesses, and purpose.
- o Ingenuity: Adapting to change with creativity and resilience.
- o Love: Building relationships based on respect, care, and empathy.
- o Heroism: Inspiring others through vision and actions aimed at the greater good.

3. Practical Applications for Educators:

Fr. Jose encouraged the faculty to embody these principles in their teaching and professional lives. He shared how Jesuit educators can inspire students not only academically but also in terms of character formation and social responsibility.

4. Leadership in a Changing World:

The talk highlighted the importance of adaptability and moral courage in leadership. Fr. Jose emphasized that educators must model ethical decision-making and guide students to become leaders who serve others and create positive societal change.

5. Interactive Discussions:

The session included an engaging Q&A segment, where participants asked questions about implementing Ignatian values in daily teaching practices, balancing leadership responsibilities, and fostering a culture of collaboration. Fr. Jose's responses were insightful, encouraging educators to reflect on their roles as mentors and guides.

Participant Feedback:

The session was highly appreciated by the teaching staff, who found it both inspiring and practical. Many participants expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to learn from such an experienced and accomplished speaker. The focus on self-reflection, adaptability, and service resonated deeply with the audience.

Conclusion:

Fr. Jose Guibert's session on Ignatian Leadership was an enlightening experience, offering valuable insights into leadership that is compassionate, ethical, and service-oriented. His visit reaffirmed the college's commitment to the Jesuit educational mission of forming leaders who contribute to the greater good and to continue to inspire its faculty and uphold the values of Ignatian pedagogy.
