A short narration of the program

St. Vincent College conducted its annual “Joy of Giving” social outreach program, reaffirming its commitment to fostering compassion and generosity among its students and faculty. This year, the program spanned a week, culminating on 19th December 2024, when the collected donations were distributed to the underprivileged through the Jeevdan Care Centre.

Overview of the Program

The “Joy of Giving” initiative serves as an integral part of the college’s social responsibility endeavors, encouraging students and faculty to contribute towards the well-being of marginalized communities. The program emphasizes the values of empathy, sharing, and collective action in creating a positive impact.

Collection Drive

- Donations were gathered over a week, with contributions including clothes, groceries, stationery, toys, blankets, and monetary aid.
- Collection points were set up across the campus, making it convenient for participants to donate.
- Volunteers from the college coordinated the drive, ensuring that the process was well-organized and inclusive.

Distribution through Jeevdan Care Centre

On 19th December, the collected items were handed over to the Jeevdan Care Centre, a trusted partner known for its dedication to supporting underprivileged communities.

- The centre distributed the items to families and individuals in need, spreading joy and warmth during the festive season.
- Representatives from Jeevdan expressed gratitude towards the college for its continued support and highlighted the positive difference the program makes in the lives of many.

Impact and Reflection

The “Joy of Giving” program witnessed overwhelming participation from students and faculty, reflecting the community’s strong sense of social responsibility. Participants shared that the initiative helped them
