A short narration of the program
A Special Prayer Service was held on Friday, 20th December 2024 at 10:00 a.m. This service was open to all students, regardless of denomination, and was an opportunity to come together in prayer for personal intentions, prayer requests, and the well-being of students and their families. A Prayer Request Box was made available in the college lobby where students could drop their prayer requests until 9:00 a.m. on 20th December 2024. The prayer request box was sealed and students had the option of including their name or submitting it anonymously. During the service, the Director, Fr. Kenneth Misquitta SJ, offered prayers to the Almighty for the fulfilment of these petitions/prayers. The prayer service fostered the spirit of Peace, Joy, Hope, and Love amongst all the participants, students of St. Vincent College and their families. It also promoted a sense of unity and support with the student community through collective prayer.
