A short narration of the program

On the morning of 21st December, St. Vincent College came alive with the festive spirit as it hosted a delightful Potluck Party, followed by an exciting Fun Fair and entertaining games. The event was a joyful celebration of togetherness and camaraderie, marking the end of the year on a high note.

The Potluck Party

The day began with the potluck gathering, where students, faculty, and staff brought an array of delicious dishes representing diverse cuisines. The event celebrated the college community's diversity and highlighted the importance of sharing and bonding over food. The following were the highlights:

- A beautifully arranged buffet showcased homemade delicacies, including traditional dishes, international favorites, and sweet treats.
- Participants enjoyed the opportunity to try different cuisines and learn about the cultural significance of various dishes.
- The lively atmosphere was enhanced by laughter, music, and engaging conversations among attendees.

Fun Fair and Games

Following the potluck, the college grounds were transformed into a vibrant Fun Fair. The fair featured:

- Stalls and Activities: Students and faculty set up creative stalls offering games, handmade crafts, and fun challenges. The stalls were brimming with enthusiastic participants, showcasing their entrepreneurial and artistic skills.
- Games and Competitions: A variety of games, including ring toss, balloon darts, and treasure hunts, added an element of excitement. Prizes and tokens were distributed to winners, fostering a friendly competitive spirit.
- Entertainment Zone: Music, dance, and impromptu performances by students created an electric atmosphere, keeping the crowd engaged and entertained.
